

Counselling and registration for sex workers

(according to the Prostitute Protection Act – Prostituiertenschutzgesetz)

As a sex worker, you can make appointments for health counselling and registration here:

- by email: proSABI@lagus.mv-regierung.de
- by telephone on 0385 588 59355 or 0171 1762120 during the following office hours:

Monday:	-	1–3 pm
Tuesday:	10 –12 am	1–3 pm
Thursday:	10 –12 am	1–3 pm
Friday:	10 –12 am	-

The health consultation and registration take place at the State Office for Health and Social Affairs (Landesamt für Gesundheit und Soziales – LAGuS) in the Pro*SABI department at the agreed date and time at the location of your choice (Rostock, Schwerin, Neubrandenburg). Digital interpretation services are available if needed. This will not incur any costs for you.

Please allow sufficient time and bring the following documents to the scheduled appointment:

- A photograph
- Identity card or passport
- Work permit/residence permit (for non-EU citizens)
- Current certificate of residence or main residence or proof of an address for service in Germany

The most important facts at a glance:

- Health counselling is confidential counselling. There is no health examination. It is not a health certificate.
- Your data will be kept strictly confidential and used only to implement the Prostitute Protection Act.
- At your request, the health consultation as well as the registration including personal consultation can be done within a single appointment.
- There is no charge for registration.
- An alias certificate can be issued to you upon request.
